

A data-driven linear predictor makes each aeration decision a convex program ammonia and total-nitrogen limits enter as explicit constraints

Ten identification and noise realizations, identical influent and constraints

The N₂O submodel is uncalibrated: emission magnitudes are model-dependent, the compliance result is not.